

Currently working on two advanced communication awards:

Speaking to Inform: Informational speeches are one of the most common types, so most likely you will be asked to present one sometime. This manual contains information about organizing an informational speech, tailoring your speech to the audience, conducting a demonstration, presenting a report and delivering a speech about an abstract subject.

Communicating on Television: Television presentations require special preparation and attention to details. Learn how to present an editorial, appear as a guest on an interview program, be the host of an interview program, conduct a press conference and use television to train.

The Advanced Communication Series trains you for speaking situations you may encounter outside of your Toastmasters club. Each of the five-project manuals may be used toward the Advanced Communicator Bronze, Advanced Communicator Silver and Advanced Communicator Gold awards.
